

Treanor Devlin Brown is hiring associates!

The Opportunity

Treanor Devlin Brown is looking for associates to join our growing litigation boutique. Founded by two former federal prosecutors and AmLaw 50 partners with a combined 50+ years of experience, we deliver litigation firepower with boutique agility on high stakes criminal and civil cases.

You'll work directly alongside Chambers-ranked partners on government investigations, civil and criminal trials, and cutting-edge cryptocurrency fraud cases. You'll get mentorship and career guidance that can be difficult to find at large firms.

This is an excellent opportunity for a new lawyer considering a career in criminal law, including those interested in serving as a prosecutor at some stage. It's also an outstanding opportunity for an entrepreneurial civil litigator to help build out our growing practice.

What Makes Us Different

We take challenging cases of all sorts, representing both plaintiffs and defendants. We staff cases leanly. We embrace technological innovations that let us deliver excellent work with remarkable efficiency.

Our Practice

- Government Investigations & White-Collar Defense: We represent high profile individuals and companies in government investigations and prosecutions of all sorts.
- Cryptocurrency Fraud Recovery: We help corporate and individual victims defrauded by bad actors on the blockchain.
- Complex Civil Litigation: We're engaged in a number of high stakes civil matters, representing both plaintiffs and defendants.
- Trial Work: We've collectively handled more than 25 federal jury trials, and our trial-readiness is a major feature of our practice.

What You'll Do

- Take depositions and witness interviews, argue motions, and handle significant portions of trials
- Draft briefs on novel and complex legal issues
- Work directly with clients on matters that will define their futures
- Help build practice areas in cryptocurrency enforcement and fraud recovery

What Qualifies You

- Strong academic credentials
- One to two years of high-quality litigation experience (inclusive of clerkships)
- Demonstrated excellence in legal writing
- Knowledge of or interest in legal issues relating to cryptocurrency and blockchain technology
- An entrepreneurial, self-starter attitude
- Outstanding references (to be contacted only with permission in final stages of process)

Location & Compensation

New York, NY (Midtown Manhattan). Competitive compensation starting at $225,000 plus bonuses.

To Apply

Send your resume and cover letter to careers@tdblaw.com.